Re Item V

Reference is made to the following document: D1: EP-A-0 389 764.

D2: US-A-4 586 619

The present application does not meet the criteria of Article 33(1) PCT, because the subject-matter of independant claims 1 and 25 is not new in the sense of Article 33(2) PCT.

claim 1.

The document D1 discloses: a display panel (3) having first and second opposing edges, the first edge comprising a male part (4a) of a hinged connection and the second edge comprising a counterpart female edge (4b).

All the features of claim 1 are therefore disclosed.

D2 also discloses: a display system having plural rectangular display panels (12), each having opposing faces, first and second opposing long and short edges, wherein each panel is configured to be hingedly and releasably connectable to a respective other panel along its long edges (see figs), and to be releasably connectable to a respective other panel at its short edges.

All the features of claim 25 are therefore disclosed.

Dependent claims 2, 3, 5-14 and 23-25 do not contain any features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer, meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of novelty and/or inventive step, see document D1 and the corresponding passages cited in the search report.

However, the combination of the features of dependent claims 4, 15-22 and 26 appears neither to be known from, nor rendered obvious by, the available prior art.
